“ So badly do I wish that I could make it over for this. The weight is heavy and I will struggle with it for a long time to come! I am thankful in knowing that I was able to fly out and see her, earlier this month. 3 times I was able to hug her and tell her that I love her! Out of things in life that list high in importance, that was one of them. The road to where I am now could not have traveled to fruition without her. Many come and many go, but only some of them were preordained to the plan. A lot of us know that we never be without you, because you carved your mark in us!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
I love you Lady!

“ The years have kept us across the country while my brother's children and mine grew up. But when Aimee was little I would go over to my sister Diane's house and play with her. Always brushed her hair. She was the most beautiful bright eyed little girl. Her love for animals I'm sure was inherited from our older sister, Sandy. I believe Aimee is united with her baby brother and our loved ones in heaven. I pray God's Peace on all of the family and Aimee's husband, Jason - that Peace that passes all understanding.
