“ Dear Sewastynowicz children,
Every time I walk by 220 I feel sad. Alice always had a smile and a kind word to say to everyone. A few days before she died I walked by with my granddaughter and Alice was so gracious. She remembered Sarah, who has visited here every year of her 23 years. Sarah thought she was the sweetest woman and she couldn't believe she had passed away so soon after. Alice washed her kitchen window the day before she had the stroke. I offered to do it for her and she said, "I have to do something!" She's in heaven with your dad and I will miss them both here at the Penthouse. My prayers are for them and for you, her children and grandchildren who "were wonderful!"
God bless you,
Mary Ann Warnez
