“ Kenny,
I wanted to let you know that I am thinking of you and the family not just during this time but throughout the years that go by without seeing each other, Al is with God who will hold him in his hands to show him peace and love, I'm very positive that Tony is also there waiting to welcome him into the garden of Love, I know words sometime don't help but prayers do and mine are with you. Love to you and Dee and miss seeing you.

“ I will always cherish the moments Al and I shared playing with the Buffalo Touch at the Sportsman's Tavern. Laughing, joking around but serious when performing. Al wrote one of the songs on the very last CD we did with the Touch. "I'll Bet You My Heart" & even sang the vocals on it too. Al was a class act but then again..., he is & always will be a "Krupski". We are all gonna miss ya Allen.

“ I will always remember meeting all the brothers when they played New London Ct and becoming like family. As my family traveled to Buffalo on numerous occasions. And the first time you all met my husband Chuck in and put him through the wringer and told him he past the brother test. You will be missed.
