“ I am so sorry I missed the showing . I always liked Andy and his no nonsense approach to life . It was a pleasure to work with him. The first time I saw him with his hair down I told him he looked just like the man on the cross. We both laughed and he said his ancestors were from that part of the world . He was a highly skilled mechanic and could fix anything. He was one of the few people I missed when I retired. May he be in a better place.

“ Words cannot explain the pain in my heart for the loss of this man. I remember meeting Andy for the first time years ago at Bison Ford. I walked into the locker room where He was practicing his knife throwing skills at a hardwood door. First time appearances can be very intimidating, but you can't judge a book by its cover as I found out as time went by. Here was a man who was thoughtful and kind, and always there to lend a hand. He said what was on his mind and didn't care if you wanted to hear it or not, but it was always the truth, and God forbid if you said anything about his Family who he held in the highest regard. Here was a man that climbed on a Harley Davidson, and rode over 5,000 miles each summer to go to Sturgis, and then onward to visit Family scattered over Gods creation. Yes, here was a man that I feel honored to call my Friend. Until We meet again

“ Kelly and entire family ,I am sorry for your loss I just can't imagine the pain. When I think of Andy he was such a kind soul, he would go out of his way to help lance and I with our car did not want any thing in return. I gave Andy a envelope and said take your beautiful wife out to dinner. He just bowed and smiled. He is one of a kind ,Great husband to Kelly too. Kelly new Andy was one of a kind, she always said how much she loved him every time Kelly and I were hanging out. Andy was a great father and grandfather. I still could picture A building the cat's a out door house with BIG smiles. Blake and Kayden would tell me all about what they have done the next time they would come to nana and pa pa Snyder's. I just saw how proud and happy they were. Well the world lost A Truly A man of Greatness, you will be missed!!!! Condolences to the entire family I will keep you in my prayers!!
