“ Dear Gallagher&Rudnick families,
Sending comforting hugs & healing prayers to each of you.
Celebrating Angie/she touched so many lives.
She was a remarkable lady! She helped with JFK
PTO, Sports Club and Southside Baseball.
I will cherish my friendship with her always & have countless memories of volunteering side by side with her. A beautiful soul!!
I know there is a heaven so Angie is with Mike again to watch over their family now and they want you all to be happy & full of love they gave you.
“A great soul serves everyone all the time. A great soul never dies.
There memories brings us together. “
Wishing you all Peace

“ My brother and I (Gary and Bobby Kabutz) wanted to offer our deepest condolences to the entire family. Our family was close many years ago going all the way back to being next door neighbors on Herman street in Buffalo.As kids we spent many days on Roland street visiting always having a great time. Unfortunately we didn't keep in touch in person but still have many great memories from those days. God bless and rest in piece.
