“ Hey Art,
Just letting you know I miss you so much and No, time doesn't make things easier it just makes them bearable. What I wouldn't give to see you walk through the door just one more time. It's a horrible heartache that never goes away. Today is the day you left the girls and I they miss and still talk about you all the time. You certainly left your mark with us in our hearts, your warm smile your, your beautiful face, your strength, your kindness, your wisdom, and your ability to see things so clear. Just know there isn't a day that we don't miss and think about to all the time. Love you with all my heart, Naha

Anytime . I'll will embrace it and not be afraid . I listened to about 50 voicemails that you left me n your voice is as clear n beautiful as I remember . I would give anything to see your face . I do now that you are all around me I feel it . I know that Gracie feels it too . She calls your bed room her bed room . She has her bed n blankly where you used to lay . She is very peaceful in your room n I know it's cuz your there . I know your yelling at me for being sappy so I'll leave it at that n just know we all miss you n were trying to carry on n do the best we can. Not one day goes by that i don't think of you . “ HI UP THERE UNC

I just wanted to say Thank You for showing me off with all of the pictures of us together, and my artwork. Everyone was so impressed with us, that even Father Dan mentioned Me during the Mass. I will be a Good Girl so that you will continue to be proud of me, just like you always were. If you ever want to come back down here to visit me while I'm sleeping, all you have to do is rub your whiskers on my cheek, and I will know that it's you, ok?

“ Mr. Art/Unk,

You are already missed a ton down here. Your girls have been so strong and I know you are so proud of them. I am thankful for all the stories you shared with me and for our lobster dinners. Rest in Peace Unk and we can share a brandy together someday. Love you.

“ I am saddened to hear of the passing of your brother and uncle, my sympathy's to you. Affectionately known as "Artie" to many of us at SUNY Canton, Art will fondly be remembered and respected for his passionate teaching style, good nature and fun quirks. I can't help but smile as I reminisce, he was more than just an instructor, he was a friend to many. Before he would dismiss his classes Artie would usually finish with the phrase "di di mau", Vietnamese for "leave quickly "or "go away".. di di mau Artie, God speed and God bless on your journey.

“ Hi Unk, You are at peace and resting in heaven at this time. I am going to miss you a lot. You were taken from this earth too soon, but God has a plan for all of us. I can still smell your homemade soup that you used to make us, I can still hear your voice singing those silly songs to us, the lessons you taught us at school. As your up there with Papa watch over us and keep us safe. The time that we had with you is precious and no one can ever replace you . You are a strong and kindhearted man that will never be forgotten but greatly missed. Make sure to pray for us and I promise to keep you in my prayers each and everyday. I love you Unk.

Always ,
Shannon

“ Hi Unc

I promise you that I will be a Good Girl, but you have to be a Good Boy and play "nice" with all of the other Angels. Promise me that you will be a Good Boy, so that you won't have to sit in the "naughty chair". I don't want that to happen to you because I Love You So Much!

“ Hey Art ... Remember the first time Nancy and I drove to Canton? You had a terrific steak dinner waiting for us, but we were 8 hours late because we stopped by my Aunt and Uncle in Syracuse for some "liquid refreshment". Keep the grill hot, keep the beer cold, reserve a big table for us, and we can all do it together again someday in Heaven.

“ Hi Sinky!

You were the BEST uncle & great uncle any "girly" could ask for. Remembering all the great times we had together. You made the best hot dogs ever! Walking to school with you when you would be teaching, sleeping on your cots in the living room every single night and you would wake me up to the army trumpets tapping your foot. Cuddling you on the couch, all great memories that will stay close to my heart forever.

You will be in my every day thoughts and prayers. I can hear you and papa on the drums and accordion. God has a great man, and I have a great angel looking over GF and I.

Well that's all for now, drop me a line some time

*Love Always & Forever,
Lisa-Lu xoxoxo*

“ My Stink,

You were there for me through everything. No matter how big or small, any accomplishment whether it was a "kin-e-garden" art project at "Barney's" or the day I graduated from "that Hilberter College that makes me smart", you were always so proud of me. You have taught me so much "including, but not limited to", making an amazing fried bologna "sammich" and "orinch sa dring", how to play a drum solo (although no question you were better even though you told me how great I did) and after all these years, sharing your soup recipe with me.

Every time I hear the army wake up trumpets I know you're standing there tapping your foot. Every time I hear the accordion play, I know its you. Every time I see cut up hot dogs, I know you cut them.

Every time I hear of Duquesne, I see you showing your ring to me.

Every time I wake up at 3 a.m. and walk around the house I know its you who got me up.

Every time I think of you, I know you think of me. Every time I say a prayer, just know you are always in them.

God said for you to :come and get your chow now, come and get your chowww."

I love you Unkie and you'll always be in my heart and a part of my soul.

Love,

“ My Beautiful Unkie,
Your struggles are over and you are now at peace . I know you are in heaven with all the angels we have lost on earth . I will forever cherish the memories I was blessed to have with you . Every time I hear an accordion play I will know your playing in heaven . Every time I have a craving for oxtail soup I know your enjoying a bowl too. Most of all I know that when I think of you you are thinking of me too. I miss you so much and will forever love you . My Unkie , my angel , until we meet again
Love ,
