“ My name is David Snelling. I grew up on Parkridge Ave and met Audrey through my late friend, Douglas Smith. I was only a late teen back in the 80's when I met Audrey, but we used to always go play bingo together. I remember sitting with her at Ebony Gents, on the corner of Bailey and Thornton. Audrey loved going to the Lamppost in Cheektowaga. That was one of her favorite spots. It seems like Audrey lived a happy healthy long life. I went away to college in the mid 80's and we lost touch decades ago. I have never stopped thinking about her. I still remember her phone number from Berkshire, 837-7654. She was a wonderful God-Gifted woman. I just wanted the family to know that after almost 40 years, I still think of Audrey.
