“ Cheryl I am very sorry about your sister's passing. It is a very hard time. How lucky she was to have her family with her when it counts the most.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ So sorry to hear of Christine's passing. I thought Chris was a wonderful person. So sweet and loving. She will really be missed. Even though I can not attend Saturdays memorial (I will be out of town) I will be praying for her and her sisters (Claudia and Cheryl as well as her niece and nephews) because I know how much she cared for them. She is now in the loving arms of God and with her parents and all of our relatives.

Love, Monica and Henry Baranski

“ Aunt Chris was always very generous. She never failed to remember me with a birthday card and Christmas card. That touched me as I grew older, that she always found time to remember my special day. When other well wishes never came, Aunt Chris' would ALWAYS be there. She always mailed my card on time so it would arrive before the date.

When I needed help with a new business idea, Aunt Chris was there. And when I got married in a distant city, Aunt Chris was there.

She always made sure to gather my siblings and I together for dinner around Christmas and was never concerned with a budget for the meal. She just wanted to see us and wish us all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

She will be missed! I love you Aunt Chris! See you in heaven! Your nephew, Brandon
