“ Greg, Christian, norm ...aunt Tina was such an amazing woman! The mm memories she left me I will treasure for a lifetime. I was so blessed to have her as my Godmother and I am so glad my daughter got to know her as her " aunt tiny" my only regret is that I didn't spend as much time with ma as I could have. she over came so much In life only to rise to the top. I was so proud of her when she became a renal dialysis social worker. Anut tina was a compassionate woman, a devoted mother, grandma, Godmother, aunt, sister, and friend. Her memories that she left all of us were all different, so my wish is for ALL of her family and friends, and all who loved her, is to meet at the cabin (just as we all did when she first got the cabin) and spend a weekend there and tell all our beautiful stories, and memories about her and have fun I think she would like that! Love, hugs and kisses to our family, I love and miss you aunt Tina may you rest in peace. I know she's with grama and grampa now looking down on us smiling and I feel a sense of happiness knowing that we all have a new guardian angel watching over us protecting us all 😊 I LOVE YOU AUNT TINA I'm so happy all your suffering is finally over and you can live your life again but this time with your mom and dad! Rest in peace aunt Nina I love you. 🙏
