“ I worked with Cindy at Ames in the 80s and 90s. She was a good friend but I lost contact. I just learned of her passing. She was a strong, beautiful, and charming person. My condolences to her friends and family.

“ I worked with Cindy for seven years at FedEx Trade Networks but we never actually as we worked in different states. I always loved my "Cindy calls" because she was always so upbeat, positive, and had a great sense of humor. When she heard she had passed - I just couldn't believe it. She was such a force. I will miss her.

My heartfelt condolences go out to her family.

“Cyndi was my “wallbuddy.” Over the years, we had become friends – we went to the ice wine festival in Niagara on the Lake the last several years. I went to my first ever political rally with her 4 years ago. That was a hoot! She never turned anyone away that came to her office for help no matter how busy she was. She always had a smile and a contagious laugh. I miss her deeply.”

“I am sorry I am hearing of Cyndi's passing today. Cyndi was a serious ray of sunshine. I never saw her without a smile. I am sure I am not the only person who felt like she was my at work Mom! She was so amazing to me while I was pregnant. She will truly be missed. I loved her very much and I am heart broken that a great one is gone. Rest easy, Cyndi.”

“ I have worked closely with Cyndi for 8 years and during that time we developed a friendship and found we had much in common. Cyndi was kind, patient and non-judgmental. She always tried her best to help our team members and give advice in a caring and positive manner. I will never forget your beautiful smiling face and your bubbly personality. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Cyndi was such a comfort to me when my manger passed away last year and was always helpful and supportive with all HR needs. We also had a fun connection as my mother lives next door to Cyndi's brother Jeff.

My deepest condolences to the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief.

“ Cyndi was wonderful, always happy. We shared a love of jewelry and she would always stop by to show me her new pieces and I to her. I will miss her smiling face.
