“ I remember babysitting him when he was just a baby. What a sweet boy and sweet man! He was so good to my mother, Esther, and she adored him. I will miss him terribly.

“ A fine, humorous man, my cousin. He will be missed by many. He loved peach pies. I remember my friend and I, in our teenage years, making him a peach pie, his favorite, and riding our bicycles, while balancing this pie, from the Delavan and Bailey area of Buffalo, to his home in Cheektowaga! What fun that was to delight him with his own peach pie that he didn't have to share! Love you, Dale. The stars look very different tonight.
