“ Brother, Bro, Dad, Daniel, Dan, Danny, Vanilla Thunder, Sting, Feyd...

Dan Meyers was so many things to so many people. He was my brother.

Dan was a brilliant star; putting so much light, energy, and love into his universe.

I imagine that his light burned so bright, it simply burned out.

Such an inspiration, to so many!

In addition to those who knew him by “names”, there may be a hundred thousand “strangers” who were touched by his light, and pulled in by his magnificent magnetic force (and impressive biceps 😊), during his meaningful, dynamic life journey.

MeyTai/Bro: I can't thank you enough for your ceaseless love, boundless blessings, and continuous gifts!

Enjoy the peace, Bro. You've earned it!

ALL: Please know that Dan's immediate family/friends group is an amazing circle of trust and healing.

Please try to help someone smile, and be abundantly kind every day!

“MeyTai will always be the 5th MoBro. I loved hearing him call me “Jeffrey Lee”. There was never a better time than being with Dan, golfing, music festing, or hanging out. He was with us since we were just little boys, and his light and love will live on in us forever. In our hearts always, love you “SDan” !!!!

“Being childhood friends with his daughter Maddie, I remember his bright energy that made him so fun to be around. From coaching our soccer team, to playing Sims with Maddie and Emma at his apartment. He once made tacos and didn't tell me it was Buffalo meat instead of Beef until I said I enjoyed them!! I still tell people that story! Rest in Peace, you were a great second Dad for a while!

“ Remembering Dan Meyers: A Creative Soul Who Touched So Many

We lost a truly special soul with the passing of Dan Meyers. He wasn't just a talented creative in the TV marketing world—he was a source of kindness, inspiration, and encouragement for so many. Dan and I met while working together at WGRZ. His energy, passion, and endless ideas made a lasting impact on everyone who had the privilege of knowing him.

Dan's influence reached far beyond his work. He had a way of making people feel seen, valued, and supported, always ready with a kind word or a thoughtful gesture. His presence brought light to those around him, and his loss is deeply felt. But while he may no longer be here, the impact he made—the friendships, the inspiration, the moments of kindness—will continue to live on.

Let's remember Dan not just for his talent, but for the way he made people feel—welcomed, inspired, and cared for. And let's honor him by carrying forward that same kindness and compassion in our own lives.

“ It is impossible to convey how saddened I am to hear about Dan's sudden passing. We first met at SUNY FREDONIA & our paths crossed again when we both started working in Buffalo television. We saw even more of each other when we started working Buffalo Sabres broadcasts & sharing similar night spots & social events. Dan always had a smile of his face & knew how to “work any room” he was in. My deepest sympathies to his family & closest of friends. We will miss him dearly. John DeTolla

“ Dan changed the course of my life. He took a chance on me and gave me an opportunity that transformed my career. More than that, he helped me through one of the toughest times in my life, offering support in ways I'll always be grateful for.

He never had a bad word to say about anyone — he was endlessly positive, always willing to help, and genuinely excited to see others succeed. He was a fantastic boss — funny, creative, and kind.

I'll always remember him for the impact he had on my life and the lives of so many others. He will be deeply missed.

“ Emma and Maddie, I'm so sorry about your Dad. He loved you so much. We worked together at Channel 4 and the Sabres for many years. He was incredibly talented had enormous passion for what he did. Please remember the wonderful times you had together and know that he and you all are in our thoughts.
