“ Our condolences to Michelle and her family at this most difficult time. It has been years since we have seen you but you were always so responsible and caring when watching our kids all those years on Brentwood. Your parents certainly raised you well. It's so difficult losing a parent, our hearts go out to you.

I was Darryls sister who he never acknowledged through his entire life. He stole my bothers money, lock , stock and barrel. He only cared about himself, money and drinking. He was a cheater to his wife all along for as long as he could be. I hope he rots in hell. As to Julie, she blocked me. She is well aware of darrlys antics. She was always a nice woman and I always admired her but now she is an accomplished liar also and a thief. May God send you to hell also

“ My older brother. We did so many things together, to many to count. We would walk miles to go bowling, we were in troop 567 boy scouts together. We graduated from Depew high school together in 1967. We joined the Army together, even though the draft could have gotten us. We fought a war together, met several times in Long Binh, 22 miles from Saigon where we both were stationed. He served two tours in the Nam, I served one. We hunted and fished all our lives, and its true, he always kicked our butts in both sports. We had more ups than downs, my brother and I. But I loved him, and will miss him, and being a Christian, know that he is in peace. RIP my brother, and maybe we'll see each other on the other side, God willing. Larry Fuchs

“ Whenever we had a family gathering at Greg and Steph's home, Darryl always made us laugh and shake our heads! He was very smart man and loved to share and help others. He was a very kind and loving grandfather. He will be missed by our entire Rochester family. Peace be with you Darryl.

“ Always found time to take me or go with me fishing and hunting . Most of the time he kicked Greg's and my butt at it too. I'll miss him and all the fun Greg and I had with him .he liked to play tough guy but he was a softy with a heart of gold .
