“ So sad to hear about this. When we were growing up in the neighborhood, Darryl was respected by all of us younger kids. I remember once stopping by their house as a kid on my banana bike waiting for Wayne and my seat broke off. Darryl was there and saw me. He took the time to help me fix it when I had no clue how to. I remember all my older brothers hanging out with him throughout the years and always spoke good things about him. He was the kind of guy who truly cared about others and was always willing to help out in any situation. So sorry for your loss.
