“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I didn't know Donna well, but I remember her as someone dearly loved. I know she'll be missed greatly here -- but a wonderfully welcomed angel in heaven. Grieving is normal and necessary. Healing is the same; it will come. God bless Donna and all those whom she touched in some way. My sincere condolences.

“ The thing I loved most about Aunt Donna was her no nonsense approach to life. She never gave a sugar coated answer, no matter how tough the question might have been. Be strong and tell it like it is. I wished I could have been more like her. You will be missed.
