“Doris welcomed everyone to the UCC in Arcade. She grew beautiful flowers in her yard and many times a bouquet of Doris' flowers adorned the church alter. A dear, kind lady who loved the Lord and those around her.

“Doris was a wonderful woman and her community will certainly miss her. She used to talk to me after church on some Sundays and tell me she liked a certain song I had played during the service. A dear, sweet lady.

“I knew Doris to be truly a gentle woman, filled with the Spirit of her Lord and dedicated to all which he exemplifies. Her kindness was evident to all and her labors were filled with the desire to do her Lord's work.
