“ Dad I miss you so much already. My heart is broken but I know you're at peace and free from your suffering. I hope you have reunited with your parents and brothers and our dear sister Diane. Keep kicking those soccer balls and visit me anytime in spirit - my door is forever open until we meet again. All my love, hugs and kisses, your baby girl Linda.

“ I knew Eddie for many years as a fellow soccer referee and worked with him several times. He always greeted me with "Hello, Billy", but which from him came out sounding like bee-lee. I was very sorry to learn of his passing.
