June 16, 1920 - February 22, 2021

The Mass of Christian Burial, on Saturday, February 27th at 9:30 AM, will be live streamed at <https://client.tribucast.com/tcid/35322054>. Memorials may be made to Hospice Buffalo, Inc. at 225 Como Park Blvd, Cheektowaga, NY 14227.

Edward Kargul passed away peacefully in his West Seneca residence on February 22 nd 2021 at 100 years young. He was an exceptional man who devoted himself to a life of service to his family, his country, the community, and his faith. He was an adoring husband of the late Dorothy Kargul, cherished father to Bonnie Slimko (Dennis Fridmann), loving grandfather to Jennifer (Richard) Fosdick and Greg (Sasha) Slimko and beloved great grandfather to Julia and Ian (Fosdick), and Addison and Hanna (Slimko).

Ed was an honored veteran of World War II and a lifelong member of the VFW and American Legion. He retired from Scott Aviation in Lancaster where he worked as a machinist for most of his career. He also had a many side jobs over the years. He was a personal assistant to his dear wife Dorothy who kept him very busy. He was also her dance partner and pinochle buddy. He worked as chauffeur for Bonnie and her high school friends who frequently asked for a ride home from school. He was a landscaper and would meticulously cut not only his lawn, but Bonnie's and his sister in law Gerry's as well. He was a handyman who would help anyone in need of household repairs, and if anyone needed a tool he had it! He was a driving instructor who took on the brave job of teaching his grandchildren how to drive. He was a cheerleader who cheered on his great grandchildren at their sporting events whenever he could attend. Most importantly, he was a humanitarian, always willing to help others in any way he could.

There is no question Ed will be an angel in Heaven, maybe even an inspiration to the other angles in Heaven. We are truly blessed to have had this kind, gentle, generous soul in our lives. All the wonderful memories he has created will live in our hearts forever.

“ Humble beginnings, a simple and discrete presence. Respect for his family from a young age transformed into respectful duty to his country, a turbulent period he lined with altruism and humility. Dedication to his family, his work, his neighbors, his country and his God; kind words with every move through every day. Steady generosity, caregiving, concern and patience tiled the path of his one-hundred-year hero’s journey. Memories of him will find a quiet place in our hearts and minds, as he had a quiet place in our lives. And when recalled, they will provoke a smile, a tear or a laugh, along with the image of a wonderful man.

“ Hi Bonnie, so sorry to hear about your dad. I have many fond memories of your parents visits to Florida and their many cruises with my parents. I always called them Uncle Eddie and Auntie Dorothy because they were like family. Your dad and my dad were best friends for more than 70 years, and that's rare. They say that we are never really gone as long as we live in someone's memory, and I'm sure that your dad's remarkable influence will be felt by his family and friends for many years to come.
