“ Mom, the adventures we had....The fun .. the birth of Holly.. the laughs....the tears...I Thank God that you were my Mom. You struggled through so many hard times, but you persevered. You stayed when so many would of left. You were always taking care of others ,Till you physically could not. I Thank you most of all for taking us to church and met our God & Savior.. I am so Grateful that You are in heaven because you accepted Jesus and repented of your sins. Some day we will meet again and shed no more tears, have no pain, no sorrow, but spend our days Praising our Lord and savior. Miss you Momma
