“ Awe, Mrs. Pinkowski! I will miss you. You were always so kind to me. So sorry to hear this sad news Margaret, Mark and dear Laura. I remember when the Lord called your Dad home. We were in Florida Laura and I remember your Dad and Mom always welcoming me over. You were very blessed to have such good parents, one of God's greatest gifts. I wish you all well and I will pray for your family to bring you peace and I will always keep your parents in my prayers. Love Cheryl, Don, Chris, Nick and Drew Castronovo. xoxoxoxox

Thanks so much Cheryl for your kind words. I will miss my Mom so much, my Dad's been gone 20 yrs. this past Feb 7th. Hard to believe! It's hard when your parents are gone. I know you can relate. Your parents have been gone so long already! Thank you for keeping my family in your prayers, they definitely help.

“ Many fond memories of Aunt Lolly and Uncle Red as a young child many many years ago. Wish we all could have stayed in touch. My condolences to my first cousins Mark, Laura, and Margaret. You're mom and dad were awesome people.

They definitely were, life will be so different now without either of them. My Dad's been gone 20 yrs. this past Feb. 7th and now my mom. They are greatly missed and loved, but are with God in a much better place.
