Oh, the memories, Flo!! You were such a blessing brought into my life when we met through our days at the Kwieciak law office almost 25 years ago. I learned about the Chaplet of Divine Mercy from you and it became part of my life. But, you also gave me smiles and laughter in the times we shared celebrating special occasions with our “office family” and you were a shoulder for me to lean on during times that weren’t the best. Now, I can feel that you have found “peace” and the joy in “living” again in the home of the Lord and his angels. Sending caring thoughts and prayers to you, your friends and family.
