“ Gen and Walt are more like blood relatives than good friends! It began with their move to Syracuse when Walt worked for the Rescue Mission and through the years when we four had our own bowling team, and our own "card club" and alternated having wonderful dinners at each of our homes. We missed them a lot when they had to move back to Buffalo but kept in frequent touch with many phone calls and an occasional "in person" visit. I know she and my late husband (2013) are preparing a nicely-set dinner table in preparation for the time when Walt and I get to join them! My love and prayers go out to my dear friend, Walt.....may God keep you well and give you the strength to carry on without "the love of your life".....and prayers are with all your family. I send you all much love.

Sincerely, Marge Jewell
