Tribute Wall

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Uncle George. I have fond memories of boating on Silver Lake with Uncle George and the stories he would share with me about my dad. I also remember his kindness and love for his brother who would spend Christmas with us. And his love for my Aunt Tessie and his children was always very clear.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Deepest sympathies.

“ Dear Mazurowski family

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of George.

George & Terry were my neighbors for almost 50 years

I can always remember George being in the backyard cleaning his boat, or getting ready to take it out to the lake to go fishing.

He would always come to the fence to say hello.

When my husband and I were snowbirds, he would look after the house,

Snow blow the driveway in the winter and even cut the grass in early spring before we got back.

We were so lucky to have him as our neighbor

Terry, Mike, Carl and Cindy, my prayers and thoughts are with you and your families

My deepest sympathies
