“ Harold, the world is a little darker now without the light that you sent out into it. Laughs will be smaller and smiles a little less wider, but what will never change is the precious memories that Carol and I will hold dear to our hearts everyday. We could fill pages with all of the laughs and good times, but what I will miss the most is our talks on the phone just about everyday. Sometimes multiple times a day. It will be a while until I hear the phone ring and don't immediately think it will be you at the other end. Talking about the kids, you helping me with the Chevy and having a few laughs, always made my day a little brighter.

The streets of heaven are crowded with one heck of a car show tonight that's for sure. Have a laugh with Dad and a dance with Mom. I know they were waiting for you. We love and miss you terribly.

All our love to Marsha, Steven and Michael. We wish we could be there with you all. My God bless you and keep you. Love, Frank and Carol

“ I will miss Harold very much. There wasn't one time during my life that he didn't have a big smile on his face whenever I saw him. It was impossible not to smile or laugh when I was around him. Marcia, you and the boys are in my prayers.

“ Harold was probably the nicest man we ever knew. His passing will leave a huge void; he will be greatly missed. We are so happy to have the memories of all the good times that we shared. God definitely broke the mold when he made Harold, he truly was one of a kind. We are so grateful for all that he did for us. Our thoughts, prayers, and deepest sympathy go out to Marsha, Mike, and Steve.

“ Marsha, Mike and Steve, there aren't enough words to express the emptiness left upon our hearts with the loss of Harold. His legacy will live on in the memories and those memories will bring happiness and joy to carry us all through this very sad and difficult time. He is forever at peace now and God's everlasting arms are holding him. One day by the Grace of God 🙏 we will all join him but until then let's share those memories and be happy to have been blessed in this life with such a special husband, dad, cousin, brother, uncle and friend to so many. Love and prayers to you all ❤️ 🙏 and May God's comfort and peace be with you. , Ray & Kathy
