“ We are so very sad to hear of Henrys passing. Our family always enjoyed him and his families visits. He loved cars and it was always a great conversation to talk to him about them. I could never understand how he could drive 60 miles with his beautiful cars and never be dirty when he arrived. A friend is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. It was an honor to know Hank..

I just found out today from my mom hat Hank passed and as mom said, “There will never be anyone else like Hank.” He was a wonderful person. He was such a good friend to my father and our whole family loved him. I remember Sunday dinners together, sled riding, and a card every Christmas which I will now miss. Wishing Fran and all of Hank’s family my deepest sympathy.
