“ I was always impressed by Herb's great faith and desire to have a strong Christian family. He did God's work here on earth by building a Kingdom for God. May he find the peace he always sought and know his suffering was not in vain. We celebrate your coming HOME!!!

I am very saddened to learn of Herb's passing. I spent four great years with him at SUNY Brockport. He had a huge laugh always and an even bigger heart. I feel terrible for his loss to all his family and friends. I know he is at peace and smiling down on all the people he loved.

“Herb is one of our most recent relatives. We hit it off right away when we first met at Brooke and Jake's "graduation" at the Baja competition and spent more time together since then. I enjoyed our time and phone calls and will not forget "my brother from another mother" as he called me after meeting for the 2nd time. I shall see you again in Heaven, my brother.

“I have no words to describe what a great person Herb was. So strong and full of life. His own "unique" personality. I will always count him among my dear friends. So sad at his passing. God's grace and kindness you all in this hard time.”

“ Prayers up for Herb and family. Always a kind soul and up for some laughs. I remember the classic comment notes that would show up in the finger holes in my bowling ball back at the Leisure Land days, to weekend visits to Brockport! Rest easy my friend, til we meet again! Never forgotten!

I grew up in the same neighborhood as Herbie. He was just a nice guy. I remember his mother had a huge pic of Jesus in an upstairs window and now he's with the Lord.

“ Herb was such a kind man, always giving and wanting to help out. While I was involved in Youth Ministry with Caz Church, every year we took the youth to kingdom Bound, he willingly helped us take ALL our supplies to the campground! I so appreciated his help every year and he did it without complaint! He was always smiling, always encouraging and I am thankful to have known and to be able to call him a friend. I am also thankful that God promises we will see each other again someday! Until we meet again Herb!
