“ I’ve known Jackie said she was a little child her and her sister and her brother as time went on and I married a member of her family I got to know them very well also. I am so sorry that this had to happen to her that she had to inherit The same illness that her mom had and go through all the suffering all in all From what my two children told me her niece and nephew she put up with anything she had to deal with. Jackie you’re a beautiful person but now you can rest with no more pain I was glad to know you for the length the time that I did. God be with you Sue
