“ Dear Patti,

My sympathy is with you and your daughter, Sarah. I remember the happiness and love he brought into your life when you began going together. May treasured memories of your shared lives sustain you through this time of sorrow.

I have thought of you often over the past years and would welcome the opportunity to get together sometime.

Most sincerely,

“ I met Jim and knew him as a very devout Catholic during the many years he resided at Absolut Care in East Aurora. I would visit with him every Wednesday and bring him the Eucharist in the form of the Host. I know that he appreciated our time together and it brought him some peace to spend the time to pray with me. I will always remember his smile when he saw me. He never failed to thank me for coming..
