“ To Jeane:

Although we have never met I feel as if I know you as Jesse as spoken of you many times.

As two young widows we bonded very well.

Jessie was always well dressed, always with the latest hair style, and always ready for for fun. she enjoyed dancing, dining, bingo (especially going to Canada). Lo and behold when the casinos opened yep you guessed it, another vise. One thing I will never forget is no matter how late it would be Jessie would never go home until we stopped for breakfast.(In the 80's music played till 2-3 AM. Someimes we never got home till 5AM.

As Archie Bunker would say " Those Were The Good Old Days"

With fond memories of a good friend I leave you with Peace. Alice Dombrowski
