“Joan was such a wonderful friend. She was one of the most thoughtful people I knew. I met her through a friend of mine (who is also now deceased) at Slip Aweigh on Fuhrmann Blvd. We would all get together every Tuesday. It was karaoke night and they had a main singer. They also had dancing (all outside). It was such a fun evening and we all enjoyed it. Joan and I also used to meet frequently and go out to dinner. The last time we got together was in April of 2019. We went to Wayside....a restaurant we both enjoyed. R,I,P. my friend. I miss you so much!

“ With not really knowing what or how to say so little about such a enormously wonderful person as Joanie, I nonetheless offer these condolences and memory of her, as I'm sure we all knew her of. Every time I would visit her whether at the food party where she served our Lord selflessly, or at her home while lovingly entertaining family, Joanie was always a bundle of happiness and joy. Not once can I honestly recall where she was bewildered with anger or frustration. She was always intently focused on family and their problems or frustrations, as seemingly her own issues took a back-seat, so to speak, to that of her family's issues. Indeed she will be truly missed and not forgotten by those whom knew her and her living family, as to all them I would say that their loss has only been to the avail of our Lord whom Joanie loved and served faithfully until her passing of which she awaited so patiently for. For only the Lord knew of when her time was and sought only to have all rejoice in her transition...and for that I would wish all that knew her an ease of your pains over your loss, with knowing she resides with the Lord and awaits all she knew and loved therewith.

“ What a genuinely kind, caring, generous lady. I was so glad to know her...met at the beauty shop in West Seneca 10 years ago....always took the time to ask how one was doing. Loved her children...spoke of them frequently and her grandchildren. I always enjoyed the updates on the family. She was an asset to the world and I will forever remember her. Kathleen Full

“ We will miss Joan dearly. She was a very caring and loving person. Loved working with her at the Food Pantry and at St. Luke's Mission of Mercy when she went with us. Remembering her during our Red Hat years together also. God has another angel now to watch over us.

“ Joan's Family,

My heartfelt sympathy for your loss. I've known my dear neighbor Joan for over 30 years and she was a kind, caring, and generous person and my Avon lady for several years. I'll always remember sitting with her on the outdoor bench and enjoying many conversations over the years. Joan, you will be truly missed. May you rest in peace.
