“ I first met Joan when we worked together at Office Max. A couple of years later our paths would cross again when I assumed the role of Organist and Director of Music at St. Josaphat from 2000-2005. She was dedicated and hard worker and someone who I will remember for her smile and wave from her pew in church up to me in the choir loft! May she now rest in peace—a woman of faith whose good deeds go before her as she now shares in the joy and hope promised by our Risen Lord!

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Jeff Nowak

“ Joan was an awesome neighbor and friend to me. She was like family to me. I always loved seeing her on Halloween and I always loved talking with her when she was outside. I always loved talking about my interests with her and I always loved telling her about all of the cool things. I'm going to miss seeing her. Her family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Joannie was a very caring and compassionate person. I had the privilege of growing up with her on Kennedy Rd. I can remember playing Monopoly and making pizzas at her house. She had always enjoyed cooking. She had a love for Neil Diamond and Tiger. Before the days of cell phones and electronics, you would go over and visit others. Joan had a warm smile that greeted you. She was always willing to lend a hand, be with snow shoveling or planning a party. Sorry that we has loss track of each other after our college days. But the mention of her name still brings back some fun memories and smiles. She left precious footsteps in my life. Thanks for being a friend.
