“ Ken, Karen, & Family, your Mother was always a positive person willing to help others at no cost. I still remember when I had my 5th Birthday and your Mother help my Mom give me the best Birthday party. Then 30 years later talking to My young Sons as if they were Her own looking out for their best Interest. We will miss your Mother, but we have great memories that we will always be with us. Our love and Prayers William & Lisa Pietruszewski & sons.

“ Dear Karen and Ken and family. I have known your Mom for over 50 years. My heart is very heavy and sad because your Mom was a very dear friend. Our times together were many happy ones: school concerts, cub scout outings, high school band and orchestra trips. We had over fifty years of friendship and I will miss her and will remember her for all our times together. Mr. Ed and I send you our heart felt thoughts with deep sympathy. My soul is happy for Mom's new life with God and all his people.

Love Mrs Pat and Mr Ed
