“ I’ve been missing you. Sometimes I’m mad, other times I just sit and try to understand. I know and I knew but I wasn’t ready. I guess you wouldn’t call and talk if you’re in that mindset. I hope you know peace now. I hope you know your worth. I hope you are happy. Until we meet again...

“ Johnny was my baby brother.. I loved him dearly. When our mom Rose started going into Alzheimer's he was her sole caretaker as I live in IL. He sacrificed his whole future for her. I will never forget all you did for mom... Love and miss you always..
