“Joan, John, Michael and Daniel. I am so sorry to hear of the sudden passing of John. He loved all of you so much and was never shy to tell me. He was a very proud and compassionate man that brought joy to everyone. Working side by side with him for 40 years was very special to me. We really enjoyed a lot of good times together over the years. He will always remain in my prayers.

“Joan & family-- We are so sorry for this sudden loss. John had such a gift for making people laugh and always showed how much he cared. We were blessed to know him as Uncle, Brother, and Godfather, and will always remember the joy he brought to every moment. Please know we are here for you—if you need anything at all—and you will remain in our prayers.
