“ I recently learned of Joe’s passing. We worked together at John Hancock from 1974-76 before I was transferred to the Detroit office. Besides work we hunted, fished and golfed together. He was a great friend and sportsman. Joe was also one of the funniest people I ever met. His stories and jokes were classic. Now getting to be a lost art. The last few years I thought of him a lot and was meaning to track him down. But I was too late. Don’t let that happen to you! RSVP Joe & Marion.
