“ Joe and Bea were “honorary grandparents” to our children. They lovingly provided childcare to all three of our children through the years. Joe could be silly and we all have such fond memories of him and of the many happy family get-togethers. We will miss Joe’s smiling face. Rest in Peace, Hot Dog (our son’s nickname for Joe). ”

I have many fond memories of Joe, going all the way back to when Debbie and I met when we were sophmores in High school. He was always so happy-go-lucky, and an all around great guy. He helped me many times doing household projects for me. I will miss seeing him at family gatherings. May God grant him eternal rest in heaven 🙏
