She was Aunt Julia to me and I always will remember her kindness and good cheer. I am sad that I could not attend the funeral service because I am now settled near Tampa Bay, FL in Sarasota, FL. Aunt Julia will never be forgotten as a shared memory with my late grandma and her sister, Agatha. I never will forget Julia's love of card playing, rolling dice, and yelling 'Scuzzy' to jinx the roll. She always made everyone smile and laugh with good cheer! I'm sure now she's teaching the heavens just how to roll and is at peace.

“ Julia was so graceful. She appeared Royal to me. It took a year to plan her 100th birthday party. And every time I talked to her before the party she said she may not feel well enough to attend and she didn't think we should plan it. She did feel well enough to attend and celebrate!

The last time I spent personal time with Julia I was making her oatmeal for breakfast. A chore I have done at home many times! But she had a very particular way of doing it and stood next to me giving the orders! I followed her directions, of course.
