“ Gramma Julie,

Thank you for the lifetime of memories that you have given to me since I was five years old. Part of the person I am today comes from you and the memories you gave to my childhood. Thank you for allowing me to throw rocks at Julie's bedroom window so she could open the side door and let me sneak in and for not being mad when you woke up in the morning and I was there. Thank you for inviting me in every morning before school. Thank you for always feeding me and treating me like a Daughter. Thank you for loving Gina so much since the day she was born and all the gifts you gave her through the years and for treating her like your own Granddaughter. Thanks for giving Julie and I the freedom to stay up many nights blasting music (sometimes the same song over and over) while you were sleeping and not saying a word when we knew you could hear us and you let us be and never said a word. I can tell you now, we definitely added water to every one of your liquor bottles and we did play the ouija board in the toy room and I can tell you now that Julie unwrapped every single Christmas gift you got for her each year and I had to help her re-wrap them!! :) I can go on and on with great memories but I wanted you to know that you hold a big place in my heart and I Love You so much and I have been so blessed and thankful for God to have put you in my life at such a young age. I know in my heart that you are so comfortable now and happy. I love you forever and will miss you so much.

Love, Maria xoxoxoxoxoxo
