“ Love and support to you all. Uncle Justin...the next step in your life to be again with Aunt Gloria...little Gram, your brother...mom and dad and family... take care of eachother there in heaven and watch over your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren here on earth. They need you and everyone there in heaven to watch over them now...and they and all of us will always remember you and know you are happy with everyone that means everything to you... in life and death. Peace to you.

“ Dear Justine and Nancy,
I'm not sure if you will remember who I am, but I taught both of you at South Park high school . I saw the Obituary in the paper this morning and realized that it was your dad- I'm so sorry for your loss. Losing a parent is a difficult time for everyone, but I am glad to see that you have each other and many family members to help you through it.

Take care,
