“ Thoughts & Prayers to brother Chuck and family. Karen's smile would light up a room! I recall swimming in the popsicle stick pool in their backyard as kids. Our band would play in the garage and Karen was always there with her friends. She was a sweet, caring lady who will surely be missed by many. I was blessed to know her and be able to visit and pray with her last June. She fought a good fight and her faith took her to paradise. I look forward to seeing her there. We love you Karen!

*It's been so long..Chuck I am so sorry for your loss of Karen. A lot of memories flooded my mind as I read of her passing. I know Tom wouldn't remember me but I am thinking of him as well..Please know that she is soaring with the angels and find comfort knowing she made it to the pearly gates to meet loved ones before her..take care.
