“Kenny was my cousin. Growing up he, his brother Dave, my sister Mary Ann and I often got together and we always had a laugh-filled time. Kenny was a quiet man but when he told a joke he'd break out in a big grin and laugh right along with us.

I remember going camping with Kenny, Dave and their mom and dad at Lake Erie State Park. Back when we were even younger my mom Emily and her sister Helen Kluss would bring their kids (Ken, Dave, Mary Ann and me) to Liberty Park on William Street and Union Rd. We rode the kiddy rides followed by a picnic our mom's brought with them. It was such a sweet time together.

After Ken married Dolly we, the extended family, watched as she became the most devoted and loving wife I have ever seen a man fortunate to be wedded to. As we got older I would visit with Ken and Dolly during every Christmas and summer vacation when I'd drive up from Philadelphia where I live. I will miss those visits although Dolly, I will still be seeing you each year. You can count on that.

Kenny, I know that you are in heaven with your mom and dad now. I am filled with wonderful memories of you Kenny and I will miss you.

*Love,
Jack*
