“ We met in the old neighborhood as kids. Then we became family. You married a great devoted wife and gave us 4 wonderful kids. You worked hard and enjoyed your fishing and hunting. You tried hard to hang on. Now it's time to rest in peace. You will be missed by your "favorite sister-in-law" Sandy.

“ My dad.. what can I say... miss you already. I always looked up to you and wanted you to be proud of me and I know you were... you always gave me advice and always helped with whatever I needed. You thought me how to change the tires and oil in my car and how to change out the faucets in my kitchen... you gave me advice on working hard and being an independent person. You walked me down the aisle and gave me away which I know was a hard day for you but I always told you that I'll always be your girl... you never stopped being my dad even up until the time you got sick... you were proud of me getting a new job and told me go do what you do best... make it better!!! I love you dad and will always miss you...
