“ The first time we met Ken and Terry we thought we had new neighbors. There they were, working away in the garden in the front of the house at #44. We said hello and they replied back and then informed us they weren't moving in, just doing the garden. So very nice and kind and pleasant to talk to. We had an almost instant bond. The same instant bond we had with their son, Tim and daughter-in-law, Jill. We became family like right from the start. A wonderful class man. He will be missed. Our prayers and hugs to the entire family. Love from former neighbors, Bob and Michelle.
