“ Our condolences and prayers to Diane and the Swajkos family. Kim was a beautiful woman who so loved the color purple and especially receiving purple gifts. She enjoyed her family and niece, Avery. Kim loved volunteering at the SCPCA and proudly shared that with everyone. She was so thrilled winning three times at the Villa Maria luncheon. It made her day! Our last conversation was her reminiscing her dad. I wiii cherish our times chatting, going to the movies Key West trip and the occasional lunch. May Kim's fond memories stay forever in your hearts to comfort you always. God bless! Love, Mary Jane and Louis.

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to the Szwajkos family. Kim was a great friend to me at Nazareth College, almost from day one. We roomed together sophomore year and she was a bridesmaid at my first wedding. As others have mentioned, she had a ready smile and was so full of life. It saddens me that we lost touch, but I'll forever carry memories of her and our college years in my heart.

“ Kim was a genuine soul, i met her through my sister at Nazareth before i started there myself. Simple fun and good laughs, we would do fish faces for fun. The peace you deserve is now yours, God bless you Szwajkos!

“ I met Kim when I was living in Atlanta, probably around 1999. We worked at the restaurant LaPaz together, and became quick friends. She was always smiling and laughing. Her laugh was so genuine. The kind that comes from the gut, and is insanely infectious! We always did silly things together, and would joke that our outing together were always an “adventure!” Kim could have fun anywhere! I remember her making homemade soap, and tackling new crafting ideas frequently. She saw beauty in all things. She loved deeply. She shined bright! She will be deeply missed.
My condolences to her friends and family.
Rest easy my sweet friend,
Kristen

“ I still can't believe my buddy has crossed to the other side. I just talked to her on Wednesday for 30 minutes. We were laughing, and she was filling me in on things in Buffalo and trying to figure out FaceTime on her new iphone. She showed me her newer apartment and the kitty cats she was taking care of for Kristen. Kim had the biggest heart of gold and always wanted to ensure everyone was okay, putting herself second. She will be missed so much along with her great laugh. My sweet Kim has definitely earned those angel wings! Fly high, my friend!!! Stephanie Joyner

“ Kim and I were friends back at Nazareth. I so enjoyed her personality. We just clicked from the start, having met through mutual friends. We got up to the usual college shenanigans, had fun, and really just tried to make sense of the world that was unfolding in front of us. I was so happy to find her again in the past couple of years. She was the same, wonderful person I had always known. Warm, friendly, funny, and just an overall salt of the earth person. I am appreciative of having the opportunity to have her back in my life, she enriched it again. My condolences to her family and friends during this difficult time.
