“ My grandma was the best grandma I could ever ask for. She was always there for me. Every time when the bills played we would talk about the game. We went to to have breakfast every time I was with her and got Mickey Mouse pancakes. Lot of memories that I could put down. Love you grandma you are better with grandpa fly high!❤️

“ Prayers are going out to your whole family Linda at this difficult time but I know you earned angel wings and will file high to your maker along with your husband and other loved ones. I remember the most is the day that I meet you when we were there for Keri to get her Wedding Dress and we talked and I know I liked you because you and I were I Love Lucy fans! God bless you Linda your at peace now!

“ My condolences to Linda's family as they too transition through their huge loss. As you grieve and try to move on without her, please never forget she is and will always be with you in spirit. From time to time her and Jack will both send you signs that they're there; most assuredly in the moments you need it the most. As I look back on my life with Lin in it, I can't help but SMILE through the tears. Linda and I have been BFF's for over 27 years. We met while working at McDonald's on Clinton St and our friendship grew from there. We both have a huge love of tea and would share a cup together at each others homes as we chatted about what was happening in our lives. Hell, we even drank it exactyl the same!!! We tried to make it a yearly thing to have lunch together for our birthdays. I had planned to take a cup of tea and a goodie to her this year and visit but unfortunately God had some other plans. I believe in my heart that was a great celebration when she transitioned to the other side and the party continued to the next day for her birthday. I will always remember how kind she was, how much she loved, adored and was proud of her kids and grandkids, how stubborn she could be at times (aren't we all!! LOL). My husband reminded me of the time she had gone to the store during a snow storm and made sure to drop us off some milk. I had totally forgotten that but he didn't. That was just who she was/is; always thinking about others, what they needed or how she could help them. As I remember how we laughed, cried and walked alongside one another through so many things; births, marriages, hardships and death, I choose to remember one thing the most about her; she was and will always be the one of the kindest, most sensitive people I know and I miss her deeply. May she embrace her new set of wings and fly with the angels while she watches over all us, I love you BEK!! Hope u meet Lucy and Ethel and share some stories with them about us!!

“ Always remember the fun times we had living on Koons Ave.
We played ringers every chance we could. Caught pollywogs by the tracks. Those days you were safe. All the times Dad took us on our sled to Humboldt park.
Most classic of all was when we used to go ice skating and I fell through the ice. I'm yelling for you and you couldn't find me. I said I'm down here.. Enter the guys with there hockey sticks to pull me out of the water. It was a long chilling walk home. Thank God I had my sister to keep me safe.
Lots of memories too many to post
You will always be my Magilla !! You were the wind beneath my wings !
