“ To Lorraine's family... my mom was a roommate of your mom at SM. When my mom was moved from a private room for rehab to a shared room for residency, it was upsetting to say the least. But then we met Lorraine; she was a blessing to my mom, a watchful eye for my mom who couldn't remember that she couldn't walk on her own. We had some great conversations and she filled me in on how things worked at SM since we were newer to the facility. In the past month we shared coffee and snacks a couple evenings a week along with some stories. Your mom seemed to be a tell it as it is kind of person and I loved that about her! The night before she passed, your mom was joking about how tall my husband was and that he wasn't going to fit in the door. I wish I could remember exactly what she said -- it was funny! Though I did not know your mom long, she definitely made an impression on me, my family and especially my mom. She is in our thoughts and prayers. I hope she had lots of flowers!
