“ *Dear Mark, David, Rob and families.
My heartfelt condolences on the loss of your mom. Aunt Marianne holds a very special place in my heart, she was my Aunt and a dear precious friend. Memories of the times we shared will forever remain within my heart. She touched so many lives in her 91 years. I'm so glad you were able to get her book published, she worked on it for many years. Now we can have some of her stories and life experiences in print. Thank you.
Love Kathy*

“Marianne and my friend Maureen English shared your mom’s last few months together at Fox Run. I so very much enjoyed my conversations with her. We would laugh quite often that Maureen had Marianne’s cloths on and vise versa..... “it’s hard to read name tags” I would say to her, and she’d laugh. She loved talking about her sons, and you could hear the pride thru her stories. Marianne and Maureen were perfect roommates together. When I saw her book sitting on her table, I asked her if she wrote that, and a smile from ear and ear appeared”I sure did”. I just picked up your mom’s book from Amazon, and very much look forward to reading it. She will always hold a light in my heart. She was pure joy ❤️
