“ Uncle Karl and family: it is so difficult to express such a tremendous loss with mere words. Aunt Marge was such a wonderful person who touched so many people in her life. I still remember how she was so welcoming when I joined the family through marriage to her niece Joan. The words that come to mind are; warm, loving, uplifting, compassionate, and most of all understanding. The roles of wife, mother, aunt, friend, and Gramma where filled beautifully. I can see you walking with Ed, Jenny, and other family members in Heaven; where you surely are. May our Lord Jesus minister to you, family and friends at this very difficult time. We share in your grief, and assurance she is with our Lord and Saviour.

Love, Joan, Gerry and the Bella family.

“ *To my lovely Aunt Marge.
This photo was taken in 1960, I was 4 and Aunt Marge was 12....
1960 that was the year the two of us met and I was to become part of the Ball family. Thank you Aunt Marge for always making me feel loved and welcome. It was an honor to know such a woman, who put her family first! Always positive and and happy, she adored her boys and her grandchildren and was the best wife and friend to Karl
Sr. - May God bless you always...thank you for being there for me!
Love
Sheila/ Vena*
