“ Marty, my man,

I tried my best to make you laugh with silly poems and cards. You told me right from the start of your illness that you weren't interested in being poked, prodded and B.S.'d by a bunch of (expletive) doctors.

I admired your convictions, courage and strength as you accepted the hand you were dealt. I am grateful you are now relieved from battle.

I will always remember how you brought excitement to family gatherings with your entertaining stories about your job... told with uncensored Budweiser induced enthusiasm (ha, ha).

You rock! I love you & will miss ya dude!

My dear cousins, Cindy and Stacey,

My heart, compassion and sympathies are with you.

Much Love,

Trace
