“ Dearest Wagner Family,

Our deepest sympathy in the loss of "Pops", we are so glad we reconnected with you all and were able to share some time with him in these last few months, especially at Sunset where he enjoyed the fresh air and being out doors, his shy smile was still infectious.

Paul has very fond memories of him as being a wonderful, hard working man, when Paul and Don hung out in their teenage years. These memories will not soon be forgotten.

Just know he is know under God's wings and he is not suffering anymore, he is relieved of all pain and is in a delightful place... the after life.

May you all find comfort in the memories you all shared thru his life, he had many years here on earth and I'm sure he enjoyed all the time spent with his family. Now you can find comfort in knowing he will be that angel on your shoulder who guides you thru your life.

Much love to you all, if you need anything don't hesitate to ask we are both here for you all.

Wagner Family,

Please accept my condolences for your loss. Although it has been many years since I have had any real interaction with Uncle Mart I always enjoyed his quick wit and great sense of humor. He will be missed.
